

My cosy corner

Share with a grown-up. There are no right answers. You can skip any prompt.

Someone I like to sit with

Draw a person you could share a story with.

Something I like to hold

Draw a favourite toy, blanket or another comfort.

Our cosy corner

Put your ideas together. What colours would you choose?

Suggested for ages 3-6 with a grown-up. Use pencils or crayons.

Free to print for home, classroom or library activities. Please keep this credit.

Companion book: thenotsoscary.com/books/thunder

My school questions

Share with a grown-up. There are no right answers. You can skip any prompt.

Something I am curious about

Draw something you would like to find out about school.

Someone I could ask

Draw a grown-up you could take your question to.

My question

Tell a grown-up your question. They can write it here for you.

Suggested for ages 3-6 with a grown-up. Use pencils or crayons.

Free to print for home, classroom or library activities. Please keep this credit.

Companion book: thenotsoscary.com/books/school

Memories to take with me

Share with a grown-up. There are no right answers. You can skip any prompt.

A memory of home

Draw a favourite place or a moment you want to remember.

Something familiar to take

Draw something you would like to keep close during the move.

An idea for our new home

Draw a place where you could put one of your favourite things.

Suggested for ages 3-6 with a grown-up. Use pencils or crayons.

Free to print for home, classroom or library activities. Please keep this credit.

Companion book: thenotsoscary.com/books/moving-house

My question for the dentist

Share with a grown-up. There are no right answers. You can skip any prompt.

Something I wonder about

Draw or tell a grown-up something you want to ask the dentist.

My question

Ask your grown-up to write your words here.

Something to tell my grown-up

Draw something you would like your grown-up to know before the visit.

Suggested for ages 3-6 with a grown-up. Use pencils or crayons.

Free to print for home, classroom or library activities. Please keep this credit.

Companion book: thenotsoscary.com/books/dentist